PRODUCT DESCRIPTION

Designer: Enzo Catellani

CicloItalia Flex Double Wall Light by Catellani & Smith

Exclusive to Catellani & Smith, the CicloItalia Flex double wall light uses brass and varnished metal to produce a timeless and elegant piece. The wall lamp consists of two arms which are made from flexible brass, allowing the user to extend and retract the arms, directing the light flow where needed. The lampshades have a smooth coned shape with a glass lens that helps provide a concentrated and soft glow.

Available in white or black, the CicloItalia Flex W2 wall lamp can be used in offices and domestic settings, being suitable for many types of interior. The wall light provides beautiful ambience and a stunning aesthetic that will slip into any design scheme.
