Foscarini Birdie LED Floor Lamp

A part of the unique Foscarini Birdie collection, the Birdie LED floor lamp has a whimsical dimmer switch that evokes a branch coming out of a tree trunk. The shade has clean, smooth lines and is fitted with a diffused LED light source to produce an energy-saving, soft glow. This floor lamp can be used in many spaces as its one-of-a-kind character can translate across a variety of settings.

The Birdie LED floor light is available in 3 finishes, ranging from the sophisticated copper to the more playful aquamarine. The versatility and design of this floor light is flawless and will function as both a decorative piece of furniture and an ambient light source. Create the right light setting for you with the dimmable function and pair it with other lights from the collection to create a consistent lighting scheme in your interior.
