Arturo Álvarez Fluo Pendant

Arturo Álvarez's Fluo lamp is one of several pendant lights made from painted galvanized steel mesh. The mesh is gracefully joined around a central point of light, creating an illusion of a vaporous fabric that is semi-transparent. This design plays with the observer's intuition, revealing and concealing at the same time. The handmade design, which won a Good Design Award in 2009, is particularly striking in larger compositions.

The Fluo Pendant is a versatile product that can be used in any project, whether minimalist or spectacular. It is suitable for placement in homes, hotels, restaurants, or offices. You can choose from three different sizes for the mesh pendant.
