Verpan Fun 0DM Suspension Light

The Verpan Fun 0DM Suspension Light is an iconic design which is regarded as one of Verner Panton's greatest masterpieces. This glamorous ceiling lamp creates a generous outpouring of light through its delicate seashell discs. The cascading discs not only provide a stunning visual feature but also interact with the environment. Panton's desire for this ceiling light was for it to have 'optimal effect' and this is clear in the lamp's ability to combine light, movement and sound. As air circulates within the space, the seashell discs gently sway as they create a chiming sound which has become iconic within this design.

Panton's classic and contemporary ceiling lamp design is aimed at 'positively influence your wellbeing' as it interacts with the space around it. This iconic Suspension lamp is said to be as strikingly inventive now as it was 50 years ago.

This can also be said about the Verpan Fun collection of ceiling lamps which compliment each other beautifully as they create a symphony of chimes.
