Lee Broom Decanterlight Square Pendant

The Lee Broom Square Decanterlight Pendant is part of the Decanterlight collection which was released in 2010 and is an expansion of the original range which was initially crafted from vintage decanters. The Decanterlight Square features the classic decorative Crystal glass shade with Brushed Brass details, an elegant lighting solution that is intended to be suspended in clusters - but can be displayed individually.

This square version has a similar shape to an old-fashioned perfume bottle, embodying a luxurious look and feel, especially once lit. The clear crystal shade allows you to see the bulb which produces a warm ambient illumination to your space with little diffusion. The Lee Broom Decanterlight Square is perfect for your kitchen, living room, hallway and staircase.
