PRODUCT DESCRIPTION

Designer: Dima Loginoff

Urban Pendant by Axolight

A light with a post-industrial aesthetics, and cutting edge technology, the Urban lights represent geometric simplicity. Dima Loginoff is among the most successful designers in the contemporary scene, and has designed many collections for Axolight. With this light, both Axolight and Loginoff, confirm their fascination in creating simple geometrical lights guaranteed to match any environment.

The Urban suspension is a unique designed available in three sophisticated colour options, wrinkled white, matt bronze or matt nickel. The lights are available in two sizes, the Urban P (small) and the Urban M (medium), and you may further choose between a standard or a recessed canopy. Each pendant comes with a matching colour cable and a white canopy. Urban can be installed in any interior space, a smart and discrete pendant light. Whether as a standalone, or create a cluster of Urban lights of different size and finish.

The Urban Collection also includes a ceiling light, in three sizes, as well as the Urban Mini with a pendant and ceiling light, in three sizes and the same finish options.

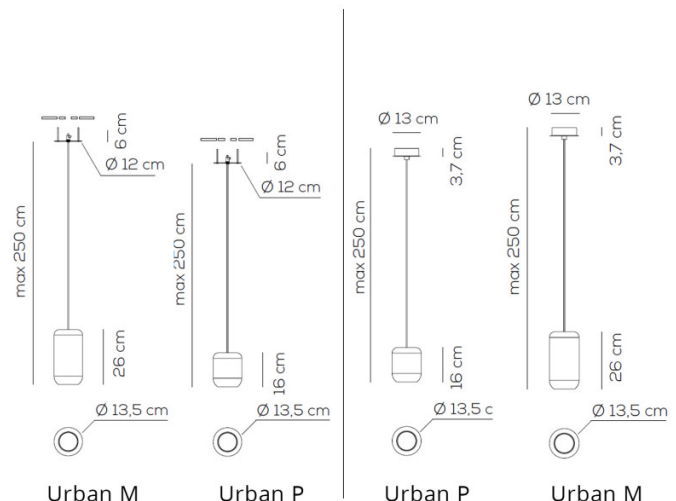

Please note, the Urban with a recessed canopy is not dimmable as standard; a dedicated PSU driver is required. Please contact us for more information and pricing.
