Captain Flint LED Outdoor Floor Lamp by Flos

The outdoor version of the Captain Flint floor lamp, this light was designed by Michael Anastassiades, and can be used in a wide variety of outdoor settings. The Captain Flint outdoor floor lamp is characterised by a cone lampshade that sits elegantly on a slim structure. The shade can also be rotated, providing a directional and functional glow, perfect for creating a beautiful ambience.

The Captain Flint outdoor floor light is available in 5 finishes, stainless steel, brass, deep brown, black and red burgundy, with each finish being paired with a chic stone base. The combination of metal and stone creates a contrast in design, producing a floor lamp that works in balance from difference. A stunning addition to any exterior, use in gardens, patios, terraces and more for atmospheric and useful lighting, complete with a handy dimmer switch.

This floor lamp is also available with with an LED colour temperature of 2700K (warmest white) and 4000K (cool white). Please contact us for more details and pricing.
