Fucsia Pendant Light by Flos

The Fucsia pendant light by Achille Castiglioni is an industrial yet chic glass diffuser suspension providing direct light. The conical glass shade is hand blown and has a sandblasted semi opaque 1.5" edge and a translucent, opaline silicone ring.

Available in variations of a single pendant or multiple compositions of 8 pendants, the Fucsia pendant is a subtle, understated and sophisticated suspension perfect for a multitude of applications such as over a dining table, as a central light source in a living area or even suspended as a bedside light.

See the other variations of the Fucsia range along with replacement shades.
