Verpan Spiral SP2 Pendant

The Verpan Spiral SP2 Pendant was designed by Verner Panton and features delicately strung metallic pieces which form two clusters that beautifully diffuse and reflect light into the surroundings. This playful design interacts with its surroundings in a unique way that makes this light a contemporary design classic. The combination of light, movement and reflections within the design of this pendant light means that it can elevate any décor.

The Verpan Spiral SP2 Pendant is available in two finishes which are gold and silver. Both of these metallic finishes easily compliment any environment and can be simply integrated into multiple interiors.
