Ripple LED Suspension Light by Artemide

Designed by BIG, the Ripple pendant light has an elemental aesthetic, created with the idea of space and function and how it will best perform in spaces. Consisting of a simple circular structure, the Ripple pendant has an integrated LED light source which is long-lasting and efficient, producing a glow that is perfect to use as a main light.

The suspension comes in 3 sizes, the Ripple 50, Ripple 70, Ripple 90, allowing for many possibilities as you can combine sizes to create a masterpiece of configurations. A minimalist and contemporary light, the Ripple suspension can be used in many spaces as the effective and modern design can lend itself to a whole host of settings.

This pendant lamp is also available with a fabric acoustic diffuser for a warmer illumination. Please contact us for more information and prices.
