PRODUCT DESCRIPTION

Designer: Héctor Serrano

a-emotional light Agasallo Outdoor Pendant

The Agasallo Outdoor Pendant was designed by Héctor Serrano for a-emotional light. Aptly named after the Galician word for gift, each pendant resembles a present with paper folded carefully, sealing the top. The structure is made from a patented stainless-steel mesh which allows a typically resistant steel to become malleable and easy to fold into organic shapes. The tiny holes throughout the shade allow light to escape, creating a sparkling effect as well as an overall ambient glow.

With an IP rating of 64, the Agasallo Outdoor Pendant is suitable for use outside and can be installed individually or with other sizes from the collection. When hung as multiples, each pendant can be installed at different heights, allowing the Agasallo to fit into a range of spaces and styles.
