Moooi Plié Plissé Light

The Plié Plissé Light was created by a German designer called Lukas Bazle who says his main inspiration behind his designs is to rethink and add value to something that normally goes unnoticed. His latest design, the Plié Plissé Light, was inspired by the kinetic movement of nature that he observes around him. This elegant design is also highly functional as the Plié Plissé ceiling lamp allows you to choose the intensity and direction of the light.

The movement of this ceiling pendant light is said to 'dance along to the rhythm of your life' as the adjustable cellular pleated shade can direct and diffuse light delicately through the space. The honeycomb pleated design of the shade adds a subtle beauty to the shade whilst also allowing the light to be functional within it's surroundings.

This ceiling suspension lamp is a venture by Moooi who say the extra 'o' in their brand name stands for 'extra value in terms of beauty and uniqueness'. This is clear within the design of the Plié Plissé Light which balances beauty and function in a unique honeycomb pleated shade.
