Farol Single Wall Light by Bert Frank

The Farol Single wall lamp is part of the Bert Frank Farol collection, a range that is defined by simplicity and elegance. The wall light is made up of a simple bronzed brass rod that holds a glass lampshade at each end. The cylindrical shades direct the light upward and downward, with the smoked glass exposing the light bulb and the opal glass concealing it, creating a diffused glow.

The Farol Single wall light can be used in many interiors and will add a touch of sophistication and luxury. Suitable to use alone or in multiple according to your needs, whether used in lines in a hallway or used in a lounge for ambient lighting. Available with either opal glass or smoked glass lampshades.
