PRODUCT DESCRIPTION

Toldbod 155 Bollard Outdoor Light by Louis Poulsen

The Toldbod 155 bollard is part of the Louis Poulsen Toldbod collection, bringing the aesthetic of the range to the outdoors. The Toldbod was developed on the basis of the Ellipse design by Poul Henningsen which was the last street light he ever conceived.

With an IP rating of 44 the Toldbod 155 outdoor bollard can be used in many exteriors, particularly thriving as a pathway or driveway light to provide needed illumination. The lampshade shines light downwards, creating a wide glow that is effective and warm. The Toldbod bollard is available in an aluminium or black colour finish to suit your outdoor space.
