RUBN Bolero LED Pendant Light

The Bolero LED pendant light is available in a variety of colours and finishes: matte black, umbra grey with steel, white with brass, black with brass, and steel. The pendant lights are also available in two sizes, small and medium. This makes the Rubn Bolero Pendant ideal for any space in your home. Over a countertop, a dining table, or workspace the Bolero pendant brings a soft diffused light to wherever you may place it.

Designed by Niclas Hoflin, a Swedish designer, there is a simple and functional undertone to the design of the Bolero collection. The sleek shade and metallic detailing add an elegant touch to any room. Whilst also maintaining the high functionality with the dimmable integrated LED panel that is concealed within the shade.

Please note, a ceiling cup for angled ceilings is available for this product on request. Contact us for pricing and information.
