RUBN Vox Wall Light

The Vox Wall Light was designed by Danish designer Niclas Hoflin, who also founded the RUBN brand. This simple wall light emits a soft ambient light that is diffused through an opal glass shade. Perfect for a hallway or up a staircase, these modern designs complement every interior.

The designer, Niclas Hoflin, claims that 'Without function, it has no beauty'. This motto has been used to created the majority of his designs and the RUBN brand. Used as an individual feature or as a cluster, the RUBN Vox wall light adds a touch of elegance and stunning simplicity to any space.
