Exhaust Spot Ceiling Light by Buster + Punch

The Buster and Punch Exhaust Spotlight is an adjustable fixture that features a sleek arm and body, providing a contemporary look for your space. Crafted from high-quality metal, the spotlight is available in two finishes, stone or graphite, with the choice between four diffusers: gunmetal, burnt steel, brass, and steel.

The Exhaust Spot Ceiling Light can be used throughout your interior, easily angled to direct the light where you need it, whether you want accent lighting or a general ambience. The industrial aesthetic of the ceiling light will update any design scheme and will look wonderful in professional projects and domestic settings. Exhaust Spotlight can be displayed individually for directional lighting in smaller spaces or utilised in larger numbers across your room. Perfect for kitchens, hallways, lobbies, or dining spaces.
