PRODUCT DESCRIPTION

Designer: Nahtrang Studio

Circ Battery LED Outdoor Portable Lamp by Estiluz

Designed by Nahtrang Studio, the Circ outdoor table lamp is a battery-powered, portable light that can be moved indoors and outdoors to suit your every need. The table light is characterised by a translucent domed lampshade which is held by a metal circular handle. Contemporary and modern, the Circ table light is interactive and has smooth, geometric lines.

Available in two sizes, the smaller 3726 and the larger 3727, the table lamp comes with either a black or rust coloured handle. The Circ portable comes with an induction charger base included in the purchase and is controlled via a remote control that can dim the light in three steps. When fully charged the portable lamp can last for up to six hours on the brightest light setting. Wonderful for use in the garden, patio areas, terraces and more, this wonderful battery portable light will add a chic touch to your exterior and interior.
