Serpentine LED Pendant Light by Moooi

The Serpentine pendant was created by Front, a design duo consisting of Sofia Lagerkvist and Anna Lindgren. The pair always create each design from start to finish in complete collaboration, and seek to produce designs that embody the making process and explains its story of exploration and experimentation through its aesthetic. The Serpentine pendant is no exception as it was born out of experimentation with folding paper.

Available in two sizes, the pendant light is made from four s-shaped parts that are twisted together and formed into cones for an alluring and eye-catching pattern. The lines that feature on each part creates a spiral illusion, producing a wonderful moving effect in any interior. Use in any space for a magical and playful look that is airy and lightweight in nature.
