Repose Table Lamp by LYFA

The Repose table lamp was designed by GamFratesi, a design studio founded by the Danish architect Stine Gam and Italian architect Enrico Fratesi. The duo bring their unique backgrounds and references to produce pieces that celebrate contrasts whilst renewing traditional design forms and ideas. This is seen in the Repose table light, an elegant fixture that benefits from an opal glass shade paired with a metal base.

The table lamp has an interesting silhouette, with an organic shaped lampshade that features a metal rod through the bottom. The contrast in shapes creates a modern look that is both graceful and refined. Available in a brass or black colour finish, the light bulb is concealed by the glass for a warm diffusion, perfect for creating a cosy atmosphere in many settings.
