HAY Apollo Table Lamp

The Apollo Table Lamp is a stunning and organic expression of opal glass and how it can be moulded and illuminated to form an elegant table lamp. Studio 0405 describes the opal glass formation as 'creating a distinct tulip-formed silhouette, each base is slightly different in size and shape, bringing a unique, one-of-a-kind quality to every product'. The soft tones and delicate appearance of the opal glass add a balanced and calming element to your space.

When illuminated, the opal glass diffuses light into an ambient glow, creating a warm ambience. Display at a bedside, in a reading nook, or on a shelf to gently illuminate the space, adding a cosy and intimate atmosphere. As each lamp is handcrafted, slight variations may occur from piece to piece, ensuring you have a truly unique table lamp.
