VV Cinquanta Floor Lamp by Astep

The VV Cinquanta floor light is part of the Astep VV Cinquanta collection, a range that had its beginnings in the 1950s. The floor lamp was designed by Vittoriano Viganó whilst he was Art Director of the acclaimed Arteluce lighting brand. The floor lamp is characterised by a slanted frame that reaches out and sits elegantly on the floor. The shade has a wide, rounded silhouette providing a nice stream of light that is ambient and effective.

The VV Cinquanta floor lamp has an adjustable lampshade that can tilt and swivel, allowing you to direct the light where needed. Use by the side of an armchair for a cosy reading light or in the corner of a lounge for a general atmosphere.
