Audo Copenhagen Wing Table Lamp

This sleek and practical table lamp was designed by Swedish designer Kenneth Bergenblad who has won multiple awards for his ingenious designs and creative knowledge. The Wing collection won the prestigious Guldlampen Nordisk Design prize for its innovative adaptability and high-quality materials. The Wing table lamp features a simple stem that elegantly holds up the wing-like shade that conceals the light source within.

The shade can also be adjusted and moved on the stem to direct the light into your space. This makes the Audo Copenhagen Wing table lamp ideal for task lighting as well as indirect accent lighting for a living space or bedroom. The minimalist polished aluminium material allows this table lamp to effortlessly blend itself into any interior.
