Design For The People Shapes Pendant

The Design For The People Shapes Pendant light, designed by Maria Bernsten, draws inspiration from jewellery - specifically elegant and organically shaped pieces. Manufactured from exclusive materials, this pendant adds a touch of modern sophistication to any room. The opal glass shade is formed in a unique, asymmetrical configuration that plays beautifully together with the shiny modern brass base and creates a refined and intriguing expression. The oval element to the body results in a uniquely charismatic framework.

The light source emits a soft light, diffused through the mouth blown glass shade and providing your room with a calming ambience. When switched on, Shapes impresses with a softly glowing illumination that is decoratively reflected in the intricate brass element. Whether on its own or hung in groups, it is a perfectly shaped highlight with a hint of nostalgic charm.
