PRODUCT DESCRIPTION

Designer: Arturo Alvarez

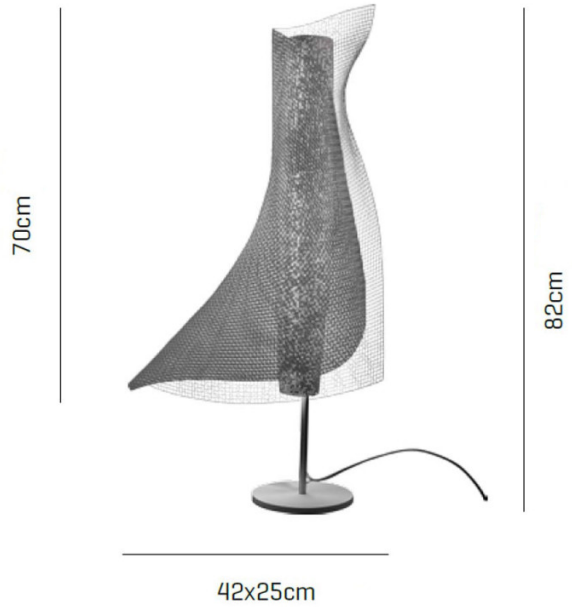

a-emotional light Clara LED Table Lamp

Arturo Alverez designed the Clara LED Table Lamp as a tribute to Clara Campoamor, who was an influential lawyer, writer and feminist figure who defended Spanish women's rights throughout the 19th and 20th centuries. She was also one of the biggest campaigners for the women's suffrage movement in Spain - which was achieved in 1931.

The a-emotional light Clara Table Lamp is crafted using painted stainless steel, which forms the curved mesh shade. Resulting in not only an ambient lighting solution but also a striking piece of art in your space. Thanks to this mesh shade, Clara casts gorgeous plays of shadows across the surface below and the nearby walls. This table lamp provides ambient lighting to a range of interiors and easily adapts to contemporary spaces; Clara makes a beautiful addition to your home or an expertly formed eye-catcher in contemporary commercial environments.
