Muuto Strand Table Lamp

The Muuto Strand Table Lamp was designed by Benjamin Hubert, a London-based award winning industrial designer. Hubert first found his passion for design at school in art class and then moved on to study industrial design and technology at Loughborough University.

The Strand Table Lamp is made with a sprayed cocoon material in an intriguing structural form that gives the table Lamp an almost cloud-like appearance, bringing a sense of comfort and harmony to any room. Its shape is soft and playful, a sculptural design fitted with a hidden light source that illuminates the whole of its monolithic form. It is a beautiful way to brighten up living rooms, bedrooms, dining spaces and even hallways.
