Nemo Lighting Portofino LED Table Lamp

Nemo Lighting Portofino table lamp is a sleek, smart and lightweight table lamp. The modern and adaptable design emits an indirect, defused glow downwards onto the table creating a halo cast. The designer responsible for this innovative table lamp is Valerio Sommella.

The Portofino LED table lamp is available either with an aluminium base or in an elegant marble base version. The portable lamp takes 4.5 hours to charge with approximately 5 hours of battery life. The lamp is charged via a USB-C port which the cable is included. Sommella gave this table lamp four colours which can either have a marble base or a standard base.
