Normann Copenhagen Hat Pendant

The Normann Copenhagen Hat Pendant was created by the Royal Danish Academy of Fine Arts graduate, Simon Legald and released in 2023. The silhouette of the pendants is the logic behind the name, Hat, resembling the form of a headpiece. Each shade of the Hat emits a generous amount of direct downward light, whilst the clean and simplistic design provides an instinctive indication of how the light is cast. The lampshades extend upward into a cylinder, showcasing the design process where functionality has paved the way for the design expression.

The Hat Pendant adds a modern and minimalistic touch above a dining table or kitchen island in a cluster or singularly. The shade of the Hat Pendant is available in two colours: black and warm grey and available in three sizes. This luminaire has been designed to add a touch of elegant luxury to any space, be it a home or a commercial establishment.
