Pholc Romb Table Lamp

The Romb Table Lamp was designed by Broberg & Ridderstråle, a Swedish architecture and design studio, for Pholc. Romb showcases a unique geometric silhouette. The studio found inspiration in the sharp lines of cardboard boxes, utilising two corrugated shapes and stacking them atop each other. The compressed form also boasts a textured surface, adding a subtle detailing that adds a layer of intricacy to the design. Not only does Romb have an eye-catching sculptural appearance but it also creates a magical lighting effect, thanks to the open shade this table lamp produces both an upright and downlight which can be easily dimmed to suit your environment.

The Pholc Romb Table Lamp is crafted from pressed aluminium with seamless edges and two natural finishes. It can easily adapt to a range of spaces and is a perfect solution for thin spaces such as bookcases, narrow shelves and windowsills. The Romb is also available in two sizes, which can be displayed individually or paired together for a more dramatic installation. You can between a white Cotton or an earthy Cumin coloured finish to add a touch of individual style to your interior.
