Normann Copenhagen Cellu Floor Lamp

The Normann Copenhagen Cellu Floor Lamp was designed by Simon Legald in 2023, it is a meticulously crafted light that combines durability and style. Made from a high-quality PVC material, the shade is known for its stability and strength. Its lampshade is positioned on a sturdy powder-coated aluminium column, providing the necessary support for it to stay in place. The circular-shaped base has a sleek and contemporary look that enhances the overall aesthetics of the lamp.

Cellu Floor Lamp is an attractive design ideal for adding a touch of minimalistic illumination to any space. Cellu is perfect for both home and commercial settings and can be used in various settings such as bedrooms, living rooms, offices, and restaurants. The Cellu Floor Lamp is functional and stylish, making it an excellent choice for those who value both form and function. Cellu Floor Lamp is available in three different dual colourways: white and grey, red and cream or white and burgundy.
