Muuto Post Table Lamp

Designed by Earnest Studio, the Muuto Post Table Lamp is a highly functional and minimalistic lighting solution. Created as an evolution of the Post collection, this table lamp features the classic magnetic stem seen throughout the range, providing one lighting unit fitted with a magnetic system which permits you to place it anywhere along the structure. This ensures you can easily personalise the positioning and angle of the illumination. Post also features an integrated dimmer on the head of the lighting unit, offering you the choice to turn the light on/off as well as dimming it to suit your environment and determine your desired ambience.

The Muuto Post LED Table Lamp is incredibly versatile, available in two sleek finishes it can easily adapt to an array of spaces, it is an ideal addition to bedside tables, shelves, windows, bookcases and other spaces offering various settings and angles. Post also makes an excellent reading lamp or an ambient task lighting solution.
