Design For The People Versale Pendant

A minimalistic design by Anker Studio, a Danish Design Studio consisting of Jonas Poulsen and Christian Troels, the Design For The People Versales Pendant boasts smooth curves and a glare-free downlight. Versale is the epitome of Scandinavian design and is available in three sleek finishes (Black, White or Brown). The frame appears to pierce through the body of the luminaire, resulting in an intriguing silhouette that is guaranteed to catch the eye.

Versale can be displayed individually or in groups or clusters for larger residential interior or commercial environments. The pendant light effortlessly creates a cosy blanket of illumination perfect for above dining tables or coffee tables. It is a beautiful addition to dining rooms, living rooms and kitchens. Similarly it is a comforting way to illuminate restaurants, cafes, bars and reception areas.
