PRODUCT DESCRIPTION

Designer: Verner Panton

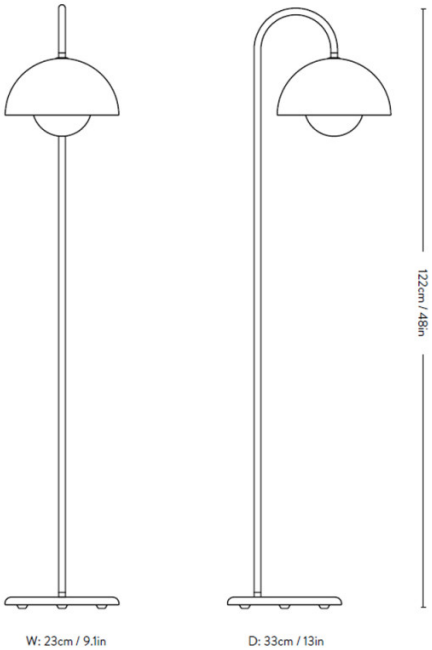

&Tradition Flowerpot VP12 Floor Lamp

The VP12 Floor Lamp is a minimalistic yet striking addition to the &Tradition Flowerpot Collection. Verner Panton created the Flowerpot Collection in the 1960's, inspired by the flower power movement. Through a close collaboration between Verner Panton's family and &Tradition, a floor lamp model enters the iconic series. Standing at optimal height for armchairs, sofas, and tables, the VP12 is perfect for use as a reading light in homes and professional spaces.

The iconic flowerpot lamp head is prominent, boasting two metal hemispheres, one twice the size of the other. This ensures that the light source is concealed for a glare-free, reflected illumination. The result is a diffused yet functional downlight that adds a welcoming atmosphere to hallways, living areas, dining spaces or even bedrooms. Available in five contemporary finishes, the VP12 can be displayed individually or alongside other designs in the Flowerpot Collection.
