Nuura Blossi Mini Portable Table Lamp

Designed by Sofie Refer, the Nuura Blossi Portable Lamp is the smallest in the collection, launched in 2024. The elegant silhouette boasts a domed silhouette with a weighted base, and the illumination shines down, reflecting off the metal for a warm and ambient glow. The lighting output can also which can also be controlled by the integrated dimmer. Available in a black, nordic gold or chrome finish, this portable lamp swaps out the glass shade for a plastic alternative - this, along with the IP65 rating allows the Blossi Mini Portable to be used in exterior settings.

The Nuura Blossi Mini LED Portable Lamp can adapt to both classic and contemporary environments, creating a calming ambience. It is an exceptional way to light living spaces, dining areas, bedrooms, bathrooms and even workspaces. It is an incredibly versatile lamp that can be displayed in solitude or amongst other lights in the Blossi collection to create a more balanced space.
