Tom Dixon Unbeaten Stout LED Pendant

The Unbeaten Stout Pendant is part of the Unbeaten Collection by Tom Dixon. Like the rest of the collection, The Stout Pendant is created using hand-spun and hand-brushed aluminium - a showcase of aluminium's beauty. Unbeaten is created in the same factory in India as the highly popular Beat Collection, using cutting edge techniques which enhance functionality and aesthetics.

The downward light from The Unbeaten Stout Pendant makes this pendant perfect to hang above surfaces such as in the kitchen or dining room. The Stout Pendant is adaptable for a range of styles and decors. It can hang on its own or in multiples with other pendants from the collection, and the height the pendant hangs from can also be altered, offering flexibility in usage.

Please Note: the LED ring of the Tom Dixon Unbeaten Stout Pendant is replaceable.
