Bert Frank Eos Wall Light Drop Short

The Eos Wall Light Drop Short by Bert Frank elegantly reimagines the classic aesthetics of goblets in a sophisticated lighting design. This wall light features a frosted glass diffuser that provides a warm, ambient glow, creating a serene atmosphere in any space. Made in England, it combines sand-casted brass elements with smooth glass, showcasing a blend of traditional craftsmanship and modern precision. Available in brushed brass, antique brass, or dark bronze finishes, it brings a timeless quality to both contemporary and classic interiors.

Designed with versatility in mind, the Eos Wall Light Drop Short is dimmable via Triac dimming, allowing you to adjust lighting levels to suit different settings. Its elongated form adds a striking visual appeal, whether displayed as a solo statement piece or in multiples along hallways, entryways, or as bedside lighting. Each component reflects Bert Frank's dedication to enduring quality and meticulously crafted details, making it an exceptional addition to refined interiors.
