New Works Material Floor Lamp

The Material Floor Lamp was designed by Nørgaard & Kechayas for New Works. The design duo are known for their no-nonsense approach to design which this series is an excellent example of. It highlights the simplicity of form and allows each luminaire to showcase the natural beauty of the materials they're made from while remaining free from clutter or unnecessary details. The shade is available in a variety of materials and finishes to complement a range of interiors and decors. The sleek black frame allows the shade to be the focal point of the design, emphasizing the beauty of the natural material.

The Material Floor Lamp has an adjustable head that allows you to pivot it in the direction that light is required. Perfect for task lighting in an office, or as a reading light in a living room. The Material Floor Lamp can be displayed in domestic or commercial settings and can be installed on its own or with other pieces from the Material Collection to create a cohesive display throughout your interior.
