Ferm Living Collect Low Socket Pendant Bell

A refined addition to Ferm Living's Collect Lighting series, the Collect Low Socket Pendant Bell is designed for versatility and timeless appeal. Its gently curved bell-shaped shade is crafted from powder-coated metal, offering a sleek and contemporary aesthetic that seamlessly integrates into modern interiors. The low socket design ensures a compact and understated profile, ideal for hanging in kitchens, hallways, or dining areas.

Paired with a powder-coated metal socket in a range of elegant finishes, this pendant allows for easy customisation to suit your space. A 3-metre fabric cord and coordinating ceiling canopy enhance the fixture's practicality, while a decorative metal ring adds a subtle, sophisticated detail. The dimming compatibility enables you to adjust the brightness to create the perfect ambience.

Please note, this product is also available in a High Socket version, a Bell Socket version an Opal Shade version and a Brass Shade version.
