Designer: Poul Henningsen

Louis Poulsen PH Aged Brass 3/3 Pendant

The Louis Poulsen PH 3/3 Pendant is a striking ceiling light that brings together Poul Henningsen's revered lighting philosophy and a refined material palette. Using the signature three-shade system, the PH 3/3 provides soft, glare-free illumination through hand-blown opal glass, diffusing light in all directions while controlling brightness. Finished in aged brass, the pendant's structure adds a quiet warmth and tactility that contrasts beautifully with the glass. A bottom diffuser further softens the glow, making this pendant ideal for ambient lighting across a range of interiors.

Well-suited for both residential and commercial spaces, the PH 3/3 Pendant is perfect for dining areas, kitchen islands, or reception spaces where warm, welcoming light is key. The 4-metre black textile cable allows for flexible installation, while the aged brass canopy provides a neat, seamless ceiling finish. This pendant is a refined centrepiece, honouring Henningsen's legacy with timeless Danish design and superb craftsmanship.
