HAY Twist Floor Lamp

The HAY Twist Floor Lamp is a sculptural uplighter that changes posture with a simple, tactile gesture. Pull the central shaft to extend the lamp up to two metres and shift the light's reach, creating everything from a low, intimate glow to a taller ambient wash that opens up a room. The coated metal construction and counterweighted base keep the silhouette refined and stable, while the in-line dimmer on the cable enables easy, everyday control when paired with a dimmable bulb.

Designed by Romain Sillon, Twist reflects a workshop-led approach to mechanics, bringing precision to a calming, minimal form. The upward illumination is soft and comfortable, ideal for living rooms, bedrooms, and lounge spaces, as well as collaborative work areas where layered lighting supports different activities across the day.
