PRODUCT DESCRIPTION

Designer: Serge Mouille

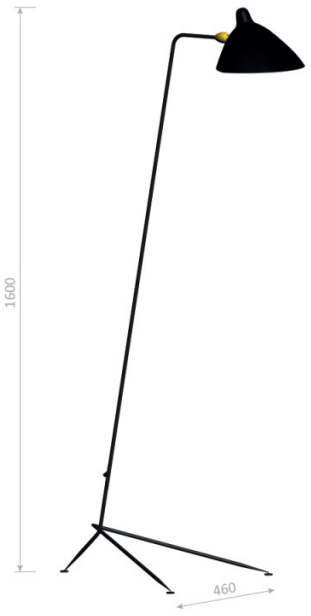

Serge Mouille Lampadaire Droit 1 Arm Floor Lamp

Designed in 1953, the Serge Mouille Lampadaire Droit 1 Arm Floor Lamp is a distilled study in line, balance and movement within the wider Formes Noires family. A slim steel mast rises from a tripod base with capped feet, supporting a single angled arm and hand-formed aluminium shade, all brought together by the designer's signature brass ball joint. This discreet articulation allows the reflector to tilt and swivel so the lamp can change posture, casting light where it is needed while retaining a clear, minimal silhouette.

Reissued by Editions Serge Mouille in France using original moulds and techniques, the Lampadaire Droit 1 Arm Floor Lamp is available in black with a bright white interior that efficiently reflects light. It makes an elegant reading lamp beside a sofa or lounge chair, a quiet focal point in a bedroom, or a refined accent in hotel and gallery spaces, especially when paired with the matching Formes Noires Tripod. Each numbered piece is supplied with a certificate of authenticity and is designed for an E27 LED bulb, giving flexibility over output and colour temperature to suit the mood of the room.
