Designer: Kenneth Bergenblad

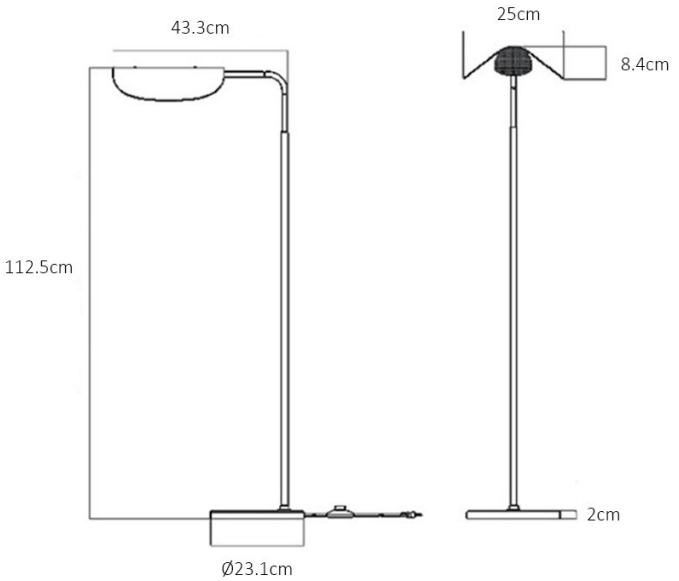

Audo Copenhagen Wing Adjustable Floor Lamp

Swedish designer Kenneth Bergenblad drew inspiration from a bird in flight for the Audo Copenhagen Wing Floor Lamp. The folded shade echoes the delicate nature of a wing, making it a sculptural statement as well as a versatile source of illumination. This renewed version of the Wing Floor Lamp features an innovative tilt mechanism that allows the shade to be tilted vertically or horizontally for precise control over light and glare. When illuminated, the shade guides light into a wide beam that can be adjusted to provide either direct, functional lighting or a soft, glare-free ambient glow.

The Wing Floor Lamp boasts a timeless design, stripped of any unnecessary details to focus on elements that matter. Available in two sophisticated finishes, Aluminium or Bronzed Brown, the piece strikes a balance between functional innovation and poetic form. Display beside a sofa for a functional reading light that can be adjusted to create a warm and welcoming atmosphere. Pair with the Wing Table Lamp for a cohesive theme in the room.
