Designer: Poul Henningsen

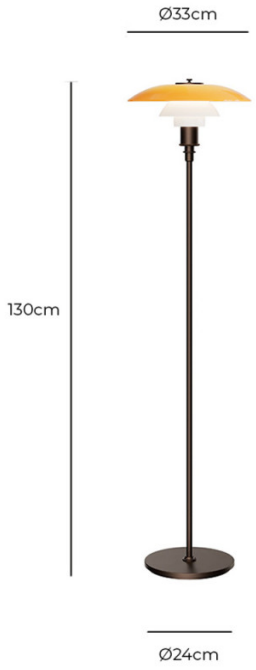

Louis Poulsen PH 3½-2½ Floor Lamp Centenary Edition

The Louis Poulsen PH 3½-2½ Floor Lamp Centenary Edition has been released to celebrate 100 years of the System PH. In 1926, designer Poul Henningsen invented the tiered shade system to create a lamp that distributes completely glare-free, gentle lighting. The Centenary Edition of this iconic design features amber-coloured upper glass and opal white lower glass shades. This combination of layered glass ensures that the lamp provides a warm and ambient glow as well as functional, downward-directed light.

The PH 3½-2½ Floor Lamp Centenary Edition is crafted from aged brass with fine hairlines. This sophisticated finish, paired with the lamp's dark brown textile cord, emphasises a vintage look and feel. Display in a bedroom or living room for cosy, intimate lighting while adding a refined sculptural presence to the room. Pair with other pieces from the Centenary Collection for a balanced and cohesive theme.
