Designed by Norm Architects, the Carrie Portable has a refined and elegant aesthetic that is entrenched in Scandinavian design and is also based on the concept of Hygge, a term describing the idea of comfort and good well-being. This portable lamp features a glass shade that offers a warm, diffused glow and a sleek structure that allows the user to carry the lamp wherever they wish. The table light has a charger cable included in the purchase, which plugs into the magnetic connector located at the base for a modern and discreet charging point. The lamp also comes with a dimmer switch so you can create the right ambience for your space.
