Vibia I. Cono 0700 Table Lamp

Designed by Lievore, Altherr, Molina, the I.Cono table lamp is a refined and stylish light which boasts a Scandinavian quality. The table light features a delightfully slender stem which slants inwards and supports a conical shade, exhibiting an elegant silhouette.

The I.Cono table light is the perfect desk companion as the shade is movable to direct the light where needed. Emitting a steady and warm glow, this table lamp can be used on tables, desks and side tables as both a decorative and reading/task light. Available in a white finish, the I.Cono 0700 can slip into any design scheme and can also be used alongside other lights from the Vibia I.Cono collection for a consistent lighting throughout your interior.
