Moooi Lolita Table Lamp

A design based on female archetypes, the Lolita Table Lamp was designed by Nika Zupanc for Dutch company, Moooi. The lamp is Zupanc's way of defying stereotypes in a male-dominated world. She tends to target naive and frivolous objects, transforming those qualities into pure elegance. The Lolita encompasses this contrast into a game between stereotypes and tradition.

The Lolita lamp features a characteristic dome-shaped shade with a lace-effect rim, creating a feminine aesthetic. The Lamp is available in three bright finishes: London Rose, Pink, and White. The shade can be tilted up to 45°, allowing users to direct the light to where required. Place the lamp on your nightstand, by your sofa, or on your desk for an effective reading light. The collection is completed with the Lolita Pendant, available in the same finish options and the same quiet sophistication.
