The Spillo outdoor suspension light was designed by Constantin Wortmann with the aim of imitating the motion of fluid. The rounded rotational moulded plastic shade glows with a glare-free diffused light that fills a space and creates a stunning ambiance. The elegance of this simplistic design hangs beautifully in your outdoor spaces. From terraces to outdoor dining, this suspension light will bring a warming touch to your garden.

The simplicity of the design will bring a stable calming atmosphere to your garden as it provides a clear yet delicately diffused light. Ideal for evenings outside with friends or brightening the darker corners of your outdoor space. The Spillo outdoor suspension allows you to enjoy your outdoor areas until late into the night.

No ceiling rose, Supplied with conduit gland and orange flex.
