Grossman Cobra Floor Lamp by Gubi

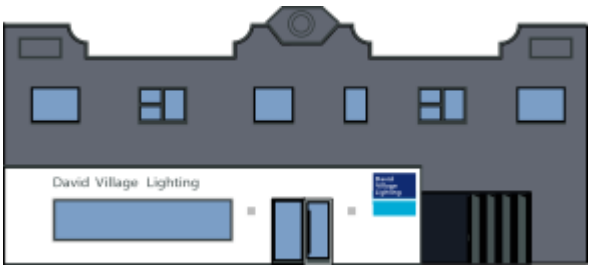

The Cobra Floor Lamp by Greta M. Grossman is an iconic design from the 1950s, part of the renowned Cobra collection. Taking its name from the lamp's shade, which mimics the hood of a cobra, this floor light seamlessly combines mid-century aesthetics with modern practicality. The lamp features a flexible arm and a shade that rotates 360 degrees, allowing you to direct light wherever needed. Perfect as a reading light or an atmospheric accent, the Cobra Floor Lamp's sleek form makes it a timeless addition to living rooms, bedrooms, and lounges.

Available in a range of finishes, the Gubi Cobra Floor Lamp offers the ideal balance of form and function, creating a statement piece that blends seamlessly into any interior.
