Santa & Cole BC1 Wall Light

The BC wall lights were designed by the Santa & Cole team, and are the epitome of functionality, aesthetics and sturdy construction. The BC1 wall light, has a pivoting arm made of satin nickel and a beech wood handle. Use the handle to easily bring closer or move the lamp away, depending on your specific use and need. The BC1 wall lamp is the only light in the BC collection that includes a cable and plug, measuring 350cm long, to plug into a nearby socket for ease of use.

These wall lights are the perfect reading companion, whether in bed or sitting in your favourite armchair. The BC1 has a selection of four lampshades: natural ribbon, black ribbon, red-amber ribbon, or a stitched beige parchment. Other BC lights in the collection include the BC2, with a fixed arm, and the BC3 which also has a pivoting arm and hard-wires into the mains.
