PRODUCT DESCRIPTION

Light Attack Conic LED Semi-Recessed Spotlight

The Light Attack Conic LED Semi-Recessed Spotlight is an adjustable miniature spotlight with a painted aluminium frame in a minimalistic white finish. The head of the Conic Spotlight can be easily directed to project the light wherever you need it most, and for this reason, it is perfect for highlighting detailing on the wall or providing ambient light in corridors and hallways. A functional lighting solution that can be installed individually or in multiples and linear rows for larger spaces.

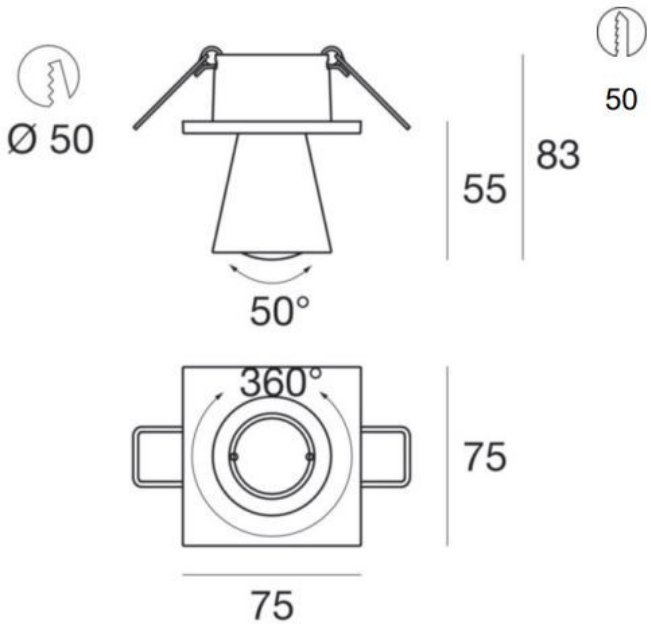

Please Note: The Light Attack Conic Semi-Recessed Spot Light is supplied with a dedicated remote driver. Please contact us for further information.
